

Alisha Romano

aromano@csumb.edu

Education:

B.A. Japanese Language and Culture, Minor Global Studies

Expected Graduation: Spring 2020

California State Monterey Bay, Seaside, CA

Skills:

- Intermediate Japanese
- Intermediate French
- Strong knowledge of Google apps and Microsoft Word and Office
- Strong leadership skills
- Works exceptionally well in a team setting

Experience:

Fall 2019- Afterschool Aid and Japanese Language Teacher

- Aided elementary school students with homework
- Worked with others to create effective lesson plans
- Taught basic Japanese to students ages 5 to 11
- Organized activities for the students on a weekly basis

Fall 2019- Soran Bushi Dance

- Developed a comprehensive understanding of Japanese dance culture
- Taught to a variety of skill levels
- Cooperated in a team setting in both Japanese and English
- Earned an award for performance

Fall 2016 through Spring 2019- Dean's List

- Managed time
- Effectively studied and worked on class materials
- Worked with both professors and other students to succeed in course work

Fall 2017- English Tutor

- Aided in writing effective essays

- Clarified English grammar structures
- Addressed weekly questions and concerns

Fall 2016 to Spring 2017- First Year Leadership Council

- Designed campus wide events
- Balanced the budget for events
- Involved multiple clubs around campus in different events

Fall 2012- Spring 2016- Varsity Cheerleading and Competitive Cheerleading

- Motivated team members at daily practices
- Recruited new members every year
- Composed routines for games and events
- Coached members on sections of the routines
- Communicated with team members to achieve our goals